

In 6 of 8 populations the change in the pool rises with the selection rate and crosses zero.

The 2 that reverse are marked. Grey = selection rates no deployable classifier can reach on that population, which cuts some off above the crossover and others below it. Red = the 0.51-0.58 cluster as first published; blue = the 0.22-0.81 span that superseded it.

